

POST-MODERN AMERICAN SLAVERY

On April 5, 1933, then president Franklin Delano Roosevelt, under Executive Order, issued April 5, 1933, declared: "All persons are required to deliver ON OR BEFORE MAY 1, 1933 all GOLD COIN, GOLD BULLION, AND GOLD CERTIFICATES now owned by them to a Federal Reserve Bank, branch or agency, or to any member bank of the Federal Reserve System."

James A. Farley, Postmaster General at that time, required each postmaster in the country to post a copy of the Executive Order in a conspicuous place within each branch of the Post Office. On the bottom of the posting was the following:

CRIMINAL PENALTIES FOR VIOLATION OF EXECUTIVE ORDER

$10,000 fine or 10 years imprisonment, or both, as provided in Section 9 of the order

Section 9 of the order reads as follows: Whosoever willfully violates any provisions of this Executive Order or of these regulations or of any rule, regulation or license issued thereunder may be fined not more than $10,000, or if a natural person, may be imprisoned for not more than 10 years, or both; and any officer, director or agency of any corporation who knowingly participates in any such violation may be punished by a like fine, imprisonment, or both.

NOTE: Stated within a written document received September 17, 1997, from the U.S. Department of Justice, Office of Legal Counsel, Office of the Deputy Assistant Attorney General, Richard L. Shiffrin, in response to a FOIA submitted by the editor of The American Voice newspaper, was the following:

"A fact that is frequently overlooked is that Executive orders and proclamations of the President normally have no direct effect upon private persons or their property, and, instead, normally constitute only directives or instructions to officers or employees of the Federal Government.

The exception is those cases in which the President is expressly authorized or required by laws enacted by the Congress to issue an Executive order or proclamation dealing with the legal rights or obligations of members of the public - such as issuance of Selective Service Regulations, establishment of quotas or fees with respect to certain imports into this country."

NOTE: IT SEEMS RATHER OBVIOUS THAT PRESIDENT FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT WAS NOT "EXPRESSLY AUTHORIZED OR REQUIRED" TO "ISSUE AN EXECUTIVE ORDER OR PROCLAMATION" DEMANDING THE PUBLIC (PRIVATE) TO RELINQUISH THEIR PRIVATELY HELD GOLD.

The order (proclamation) issued by Roosevelt was as undisciplined act of treason. Two months AFTER the Executive Order, on June 5, 1933, the Senate and House of Representatives, 73rd Congress, 1st session, at 4:30 p.m. approve House Joint Resolution (HJR) 192: Joint Resolution To Suspend The Gold Standard And Abrogate The Gold Clause, Joint resolution to assure uniform value to the coins and currencies of the United States.

HJR-192 states, in part, that "Every provision contained in or made with respect to any obligation which purports to give the obligee a right to require payment in gold or a particular kind of coin or currency, or in any amount of money of the United States measured thereby, is declared to be against public policy, and no such provision shall be contained in or made with respect to any obligation hereafter incurred. Every obligation, heretofore or hereafter incurred, whether or not any such provisions is contained therein or made with respect thereto, shall be discharged upon payment, dollar for dollar, in any such coin or currency which at the time of payment is legal tender for public and private debts."

HJR-192 goes on to state: “As used in this resolution, the term “obligation” means an obligation (including every obligation of and to the United States, excepting currency) payable in money of the United States; and the term “coin or currency” means coin or currency of the United States, including Federal Reserve notes and circulating notes of the Federal Reserve banks and national banking associations.”

HJR-192 superceded Public Law (what passes as law today is only “color of law”), replacing it with public policy. This eliminated our ability to PAY our debts, allowing only for their DISCHARGE. When we use any commercial paper (checks, drafts, warrants, federal reserve notes, etc.), and accept it as money, we simply pass the unpaid debt attached to the paper on to others, by way of our purchases and transactions. This unpaid debt, under public policy, now carries a public liability for its collection. In other words, all debt is now public.

The United States government, in order to provide necessary goods and services, created a commercial bond (promissory note), by pledging the property, labor, life and body of its citizens, as payment for the debt (bankruptcy). This commercial bond made chattel (property) out of every man, woman and child in the United States. We became nothing more than “human resources” and collateral for the debt. This was without our knowledge and/or our consent. How? It was done through the filing (registration) of our birth certificates!

The United States Government - actually the elected and appointed administrators of government - took (and still do, to this day) certified copies of all our birth certificates and placed them in the United States Department of Commerce...as registered securities. These securities, each of which carries an estimated $1,000,000 (one million) dollar value, have been (and still are) circulated around the world as collateral for loans, enteries on the asset side of ledgers, etc., just like any other security. There’s just one problem, we didn’t authorize it.

The United States is a District of Columbia corporation. In Volume 20: Corpus Juris Sec. § 1785 we find “The United States government is a foreign corporation with respect to a State” (see: NY re: Merriam 36 N.E. 505 1441 S. Ct.1973, 14 L. Ed. 287). Since a corporation is a fictitious “person” (it can not speak, see, touch, smell, etc.), it can, by itself, function in the real world. It needs a conduit, a transmitting utility, a liason of some sort, to “connect” the fictional person, and fictional world in which it exists, to the real world. Why is this important?

LIVING people, exist in a real world, not a fictional/virtual world. But government does exist in a fictional world, and can only deal directly with other fictional or virtual persons, agencies, states, etc. In order for a fictional person to deal with real people there must be a connection, a liason, a go-between. This can be something as simple as a contract. When both “persons,” the real and the fictional, agree to the terms of a contract, there is a connection, intercourse, dealings, there is a communication, an exchange. There is business!

But there is another way for fictional government to deal with the real man and woman: through the use of a representative, a liason, the go-between. Who is this go-between, this liason who connects fictional government to real men and women? It’s a government created shadow, a fictional man or woman...with the same name as ours.

This PERSON was created by using our birth certificates as the MCO (manufacturer’s certificate of origin) and the state in which we were born as the “port of entry.” This gave fictional government a fictional PERSON with whom to deal directly. This PERSON is a Straw Man.

STRAMINEUS HOMO: Latin: A man of straw, one of no substance, put forward as bail or surety. This definition comes from Black’s Law Dictionary, 6th Edition, page 1421. Following the definition of STRAMINEUS HOMO in Black’s we find the next word, Straw Man.

STRAW MAN: A front; a third party who is put up in name only to take part in a transaction. Nominal party to a transaction; one who acts as an agent for another for the purposes of taking title to real property and executing whatever documents and instruments the principal may direct. Person who purchases property for another to conceal identity of real purchaser, or to accomplish some purpose otherwise not allowed.

Webster's Ninth Collegiate Dictionary defines the term "straw man" as: 1: a weak or imaginary opposition set up only to be easily confuted 2: a person set up to serve as a cover for a usually questionable transaction.

The Straw Man can be summed up as an imaginary, passive stand-in for the real participant; a front; a blind; a person regarded as a nonentity. The Straw Man is a "shadow," a go-between.

For quite some time a rather large number of people in this country have known that a man or woman's name, written in ALL CAPS, or last name first, does not identify real, living people. Taking this one step further, the rules of grammar for the English language have no provisions for the abbreviation of people's names, i.e. initials are not to be used. As an example, John Adam Smith is correct. ANYTHING else is not correct. Not Smith, John Adam or Smith, John A. or J. Smith or J. A. Smith or JOHN ADAM SMITH or SMITH, JOHN or any other variation. NOTHING, other than John Adam Smith identifies the real, living man. All other appellations identify either a deceased man or a fictitious man: such as a corporation or a STRAW MAN.

Over the years government, through its "public" school system, has managed to pull the wool over our eyes and keep us ignorant of some very important facts. Because all facets of the media (print, radio, television) have an ever-increasing influence in our lives, and because media is controlled (with the issuance of licenses, etc.) by government and its agencies, we have slowly and systematically been led to believe that any form/appellation of our names is, in fact, still us: as long as the spelling is correct. WRONG!

WE WERE NEVER TOLD, with full and open disclosure, what our government officials were planning to do...and why.

WE WERE NEVER TOLD that the government (the United States) was a corporation, a fictitious "person."

WE WERE NEVER TOLD that government had quietly, almost secretly, created a shadow, a STRAW MAN for each and every AMERICAN...so that government could not only "control" the people, but also raise an almost unlimited amount of revenue - so it could continue...not just to exist, but to GROW.

WE WERE NEVER TOLD that when government deals with the STRAW MAN it is not dealing with real, living, men and women.

WE WERE NEVER TOLD, openly and clearly with full disclosure of all the facts, that since June 5, 1933, we have been unable to pay our debts.

WE WERE NEVER TOLD that we had been pledged (and our children, and their children, and their children, and on and on) as collateral, mere chattel, for the debt created by government officials who committed treason in doing so.

WE WERE NEVER TOLD that they quietly and cleverly changed the rules, even the game itself, and that the world we perceive as real is in fact fictional - and it's all for their benefit.

WE WERE NEVER TOLD that the STAW MAN - a fictional person, a creature of the state - is subject to all the codes, statutes, rules, regulations, ordinances, etc. decreed by government, but that WE, the real man and woman, are not.

WE WERE NEVER TOLD we were being treated as property, as slaves (albeit comfortably for some), while living in the land of the free - and that we could, easily, walk away from the fraud.

WE WERE NEVER TOLD WE WERE BEING ABUSED!

How does that make YOU feel?

There's something else you should know: Everything, since June 1933, operates in COMMERCE! Why is this important?

Commerce is based on agreement, contract. Government has an implied agreement with the Straw Man (government's creation) and the Straw Man is subject to government rule, as we illustrated above. But when we, the real flesh and blood man and woman, step into their "process" we become the "surety" for the fictional Straw Man. Reality and fiction are reversed. We then become liable for the debts, liabilities and obligations of the Straw Man, relinquishing our real (protected) character as we stand up for the fictional Straw Man
